

ANNOUNCEMENT

Powys Transition & Low Carbon Communities network (PTLCC)

SEEKS MEMBER GROUPS TO BENEFIT FROM FREE SUPPORT

funded by the PAVO “One Powys- Connecting Voices” programme

ABOUT US The Powys Transition & Low Carbon Communities network is an unincorporated association of Powys Transition Towns and other Powys town or village groups that are focussed on helping their local communities to make the transition from high dependency on fossil fuels to a low carbon future and on improving the resilience of their communities. See our website for our constitution.

www.powystransition.org.uk

FUNDING has been provided for PTLCC through the PAVO One Powys - Connecting Voices programme for five years 2013- 2018 to provide our member groups with

- free places on Transition Training courses ,
- annual county Gatherings,
- promotional materials,
- residents opinion surveys
- opportunities for sharing knowledge, experience and resources.

COULD YOUR POWYS TOWN OR VILLAGE BENEFIT? If your Powys town or village already has a constituted Transition Town or Low Carbon Community group, or another constituted group with similar aims, please get in touch with us to enquire about FREE MEMBERSHIP of the PTLCC

enquiries@Powystransition.org.uk

If not, but you are thinking of starting such a group, please do get in touch to find out more about HOW TO START A TRANSITION TOWN group.
